

PRESS RELEASE

book
PLATFORM

Public Discussion Translations from Georgian after 1991

Facts, Trends, Recommendations

A summary of seven country studies commissioned

by GPBA within the Book Platform project

The Book Platform project and the Georgian Publishers and Booksellers Association invite you to a public presentation and discussion of the research “Translations from Georgian after 1991”. The event will take place:

on July 10, 2014, at 18:00h

at the National Parliamentary Library of Georgia

7, Gudiashvili Street, Tbilisi

The aim of the studies was to gather data and to analyse tendencies in the flow of translations from Georgian into seven other languages. It is the first time after independence that such wealth of bibliographic data has been gathered and made available. Authors of the country studies were selected and commissioned by the Georgian Publishers and Booksellers Association (GPBA), the partner organisation implementing the book platform project in Georgia. The studies are available here in English and Georgian: <http://bookplatform.org/en/activities/52-translations-from-ge-en.html>

Opening by: Salome Maghlakelidze

Moderator: Gaga Lomidze

More follows

THE BOOK PLATFORM is a project of Next Page Foundation in cooperation with Armenian Literature Foundation (Armenia), National Publishers Association (Armenia), Georgian Publishers and Booksellers Association (Georgia), Publishers Forum-Lviv (Ukraine). The project is funded by the European Union and is implemented in frames of the Eastern Partnership Culture programme in support of the role of culture in the region's sustainable development and promotion of regional cooperation among public institutions, civil society, cultural and academic organisations in the Eastern Partnership region and with the European Union.

For more information, please, contact:

Salome Maghlakelidze, local project manager Book Platform

Mob: +995 599 217970

End of the document

Delegation of the European Union to Georgia
38, Nino Chkheidze, 0102 Tbilisi, Georgia
Tel:(+995 32) 294 37 63 Fax:(+995 32) 294 37 68

The European Commission is the EU's executive body.

“The European Union is made up of 28 Member States who have decided to gradually link together their know-how, resources and destinies. Together, during a period of enlargement of 50 years, they have built a zone of stability, democracy and sustainable development whilst maintaining cultural diversity, tolerance and individual freedoms. The European Union is committed to sharing its achievements and its values with countries and peoples beyond its borders”.